Photo and information furnished by her son Gerald, who lives near by.

Do you know of an elderly Gooch we could honor on front or interior of the newsletter? Will accept pictures of living or deceased individuals. Would like family groups as well. Do you know a living Gooch over 90?

PLEASE SEND GOOD PICTURES SUITABLE FOR COVER OR USE INSIDE NEWSLETTER.

Cecil Daniels, Editor

18 April, 1996

Dear Subscribing Member,

The true date above will tell you just far behind I am with my newsletter. I am not really proud of the fact, but also not trying to conceal it either. This is just the second issue of Vol. 4, correctly dated Oct. - Dec. 1994.

This is the last page to write, so all will be ready to print and mail ASAP. I have already begun issue 3 and will be mailed with this issue.

I have just put in a new computer and printer system. The old one just became too limited and was giving me much problem. I am still trying to overcome some of the data crunch problems I had with the old one. At age 65, learning new things comes slower than it once did. I call on my older son often for technical assistance. Help that I would otherwise pay much for in dollars. As you will notice TGF has taken on a different look. If it is not good, just give me the word. I also upgraded my copier this last year. Now I can collate the whole newsletter with it. Of course these nice things also cost dollars.

Speaking of costs, the biggest thing that has occurred is the cost of postage. My cost of mailing a newsletter went from 65 cents to $1.12. Then the price of paper has gone up sharply over the last 2 years. With these in mind I must increase the price of the newsletter.

PRICE INCREASE COMING

For you that have already paid ahead there will be no collecting for the increase. I will announce in the next issue, the new prices. However, until then the prices remain.

Check the label on your envelope. If the date is JUL'95, your subscription is paid through this issue and two more. If the date is JUL'96, you will receive this volume and the next, dated through APR-JUN'96. Renewals are always with the JUL-SEP issue.

Even though I have lots of material, I still need you to keep sending in what you can in the way of new material. If you have queries, please send them also. I have about used all I have on hand.

I know how far behind I am, and believe me I am trying and determined to catch up. Thank you for your patience.

Sincerely,
Cecil Daniels, Editor

The following is a copy of a hand written document. Possibly notes taken by a reporter for an obituary.

Brackets () enclosing a word indicates the editor is not sure of spelling or it was missing from his copy.

"In Memoriam

of Daniel Gouch who died at his home 7 miles southeast of Salisbury (Mo.) Sunday Jan (). A deep shadow of regret (v) sorrow, all though not unexpected, has invaded a happy home & peaceful neighborhood on Sunday Jan 15th, 1910, Daniel Gooch, the last of a family of 14 children passed over the silent river. He had been confined to his room for some time, but was not thought to be dangerously ill, until a few days before his death, when the third stroke of paralysis gave notice that his strand of life was nearly run. He was born in Madison Co. Kentucky, on the 3rd day of May 1815 - & his sojourn upon earth was 94 years 8 mo. and () days. The date of his conversion to Christianity is not obtainable by your reporter, but from reliable sources, his service to the Lord was faithful & true for more than half a century. He was converted at a revival meeting near Roanoke Mo. more than 50 years ago, & united with the Baptist church at (that time) and place, & remained a serviceable & consistant Christian until called to eternal happiness. Funeral services were conducted at his residence where he had continually resided for the past 8 years, by Rev. S. Y. Ritts of Salisbury, who has passed his 75th mile post of life, thus befitting the aged pioneer in his (song) of life, on Monday the 17 inst at 11:00 A.D. not withstanding the inclement weather, a large gathering of relations and friends were present to gather consolation & comfort from the able & eloquent discourse of Bro. Ritts, who had been a brother (V) minister of his church for years. After the residence service were ended, the remains were conveyed to the family cemetery, on his fathers old homestead, near Silver Creek, where his beloved companion, who had preceded him a number of years ago, to await the glorious resurrection morn. A most beautiful & (pathetic) scene it was to witness the dutiful action of the sorrow stricken pall bearers, who were six bright & handsome grandsons of the deceased, to-witt CHARLEY GOUCH, a son of his youngest son STERLING; JOHN DANIEL BOVENIZER son of his only living daughter NANCY; A.B. & DANIEL, sons of WILLIAM GOOCH, deceased; DANIEL, son of GIDEON GOOCH deceased and ALEXANDER, son of JOSEPH GOOCH. Half of the pall bearers were namesakes of the deceased. UNCLE DANIEL as he was familiarly called, was married about the year of 1840 or 41 to MISS FRANCIS HOOT(EN) to which union 9 children were born, 7 sons & 2 daughters. His wife died (near) the beginning of the Civil War & near () close of this strife he was again married to MRS SALLY FORREST (nee WINN) & to which union was born one son () of both issues only 5 are living, all of whom were at the funeral. Of the living children, STERLING, DAVID & JOSEPH GOOCH and NANCY BOVENIZER, all have families, while ALEXANDER is still a bachelor. Of he deceased, WILLIAM, JOHN and GIDEON leave families, while ELIZABETH & _____ leave no issue. The deceased leaves 5 children, 28 grand children, 26 great grand children or 59 direct descendants living. The longevity of this large family is most remarkable. The length of DANIEL & his brother EDWARD & 4 of his sisters, NANCY PATTERSON, (late) of near Roanoke, Mo. , MARY EMORY (Embry) of Hickory Mo., MILDRED SCHOOLER, of Ray County Mo., and CYNTHIA CLARK of Walla Walla Wash., lack but 17 days of averaging 86 years. DANIEL GOOCH father GIDEON GOOCH, was born in Goochland township, Virginia in 1779 (v) thus was an actual son of the Revolution. He was married about the time of the death of WASHINGTON to MISS NANCY STEVENSON (v) shortly afterwards emigrated to Madison Co. Kentucky, where were born to them 14 children of whom DANIEL was the 10th child. In the year of 1828 or 29 he with the younger children emigrated to Mo. & settled in what is now Chariton Co. Mo. Some years later his two sons DANIEL and JOSEPH purchased the old homestead & he, (v) & all the children having become of age removed to Linn Co. Mo., & settled for the last time near his son ROLLING, where he & his faithful companion gave up their earthly toils, & now peacefully sleep in the silent tomb. May all the descendants so live that like those gone before, their longevity may extend through out a happy eternity." (Three hand written pages not signed.)

Nothing brings on response or controversy than what I am recording below. But this came to me and here it is as I have received it. There are many who doubt that the Unity who married Roland Gooch is Unity West, daughter of John West of King William Co. Virginia. And g'daughter of Governor West who served as governor from 1635-1637.

UNITY WEST GOOCH

Unity West, wife of Roland Gooch was born the daughter of John West of King William Co. Virginia. She was a grand daughter of Gov. West who served as Governor from May 1636 to 1637.

Governor West was born 14 Dec. 1590 dies 1657. His grand daughter married William Dandridge, who was a relation to Martha Washington. Governor West, son of Sir Thomas West, 2nd Lord Delaware, who was the 13th generation in line of descent from King Edward I of England.

Donna states she copied much of her Gooch material from "The Gooch Family History" which was published in the Researcher, by Elizabeth Prather Ellsberry, in the May issue of 1983. She found the name of John West Gooch in that publication.

She posed the question to me. 'Do you think John L. Gooch and John West Gooch are the same person?'

I have not answered her. Do you have an answer?

Found

I just found by accident in my materials, a publication of the United Methodist Church, entitled, Youth Bible Series, "Promises to Keep" by John O. Gooch. The copyright date is 1973, and the man Mr. Gooch on the back cover is very young, so I assume if he is still living he is now no more than about 45 to 50 years old at the most.

John O. Gooch is a member of the pastoral team of the Scotland Co. Larger Parish, n Memphis, Missouri. The parish is made up of eight rural churches.

Mr. Gooch graduated summa cum laude from Central Methodist College, Fayette Missouri and with distinction from Garrett theological Seminary. He is a member of the Missouri East Conference and district Coordinator of Youth Ministries. Among his published writing are study units of REAL and NEW CREATION.

Mr. Gooch and his wife, Beth, have two children, Nina, eleven (1973) and Carl, seven. A favorite activity of the Gooch family is camping. Last summer they made their first trip into the high country of the Rockies. Copied. JCD

Does anyone know this person? And would his input into our Gooch family history be valuable?

Partners, to orator and Alexander s. HAWKINS of Limestone and Rowland Cooch (Gooch) and William H. GEE of Madison Co. On Jan. 25 1851 Thomas TRAVIS made a disposition, in Rankin Co. Miss.
